WAR IS OVER

Surrender of Huns Is Unconditional

COMMON PEOPLE OF GERMANY ARE IN OPEN REVOLT

PARIS, NOV. 7, 12:04—THE ALLIES AND GERMANY SIGNED ARMISTICE AT ELEVEN O'CLOCK THIS MORNING. HOSTILITIES WILL CEASE AT TWO O'CLOCK, THIS AFTERNOON.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Germany was yesterday given five days to accept the armistice terms offered by the allies, with the threat that if they allowed the time to go by their offer would be withdrawn and new terms submitted which would be much more severe.

This warning together with increased peace demands within her own boundaries, no doubt had its effect, bringing this early peace.

Copenhagen, Nov. 7.—The revolution which broke out in Kiel when German sailors seized two German battleships is reported to have spread into part of Holstein, where several garrisons have deserted and are marching on Kiel, waving red flags.

Copenhagen, Nov. 7.—The revolution which broke out in Kiel has spread throughout Schleswig and Holstein, the provinces which Germany seized from Denmark half a century ago, according to advices received here today.

Revolting soldiers and sailors are reported to have captured the cities of Altona, Elensburg, and Apronade, and to hold a portion of the German high seas fleet.

The city of Hamburg, the greatest commercial center on the continent, also is said to be seething with revolt, and an artillery battle is reported to be raging in the streets.

The crews of the battleships Kaiser and Schleswig-Holstein mutined and waved red flags this morning, it was reported. They arrested their officers, of whom twenty were shot. The munitioners declared they would hold out until peace is effected.

REPUBLICANS TO CONTROL HOUSE; SENATE IN DOUBT

BY L. C. MARTIN

Washington, Nov. 7.—With the house of Representatives republican, and control of the senate still in doubt, a tremendous over-turn of legislative affairs, is expected after March 4, next.

The passing from Democratic to Republican control of the house means that all of the great house committee chairmanships will revert to republicans. Whether a similar change will take place also in the senate appeared today to depend upon the final returns from three states—New Mexico, Idaho and Michigan.

Exclusive of these three states, the Republicans today appeared to have 47 votes in the senate to 46 for the Democrats. The republicans must get two of the doubtful states to win the majority. On the face of the returns today it would appear that the Republicans had landed New Mexico and Michigan by the closest margin, while Nugent, Democrat, was leading in Idaho.

If this situation is realized finally, the senate will stand republican 49, Democrat 47.

Should the republicans win only one of the three doubtful states, there would be a tie, and Vice President Marshall would hold the balance of power.

With five districts yet to be counted, the republicans seem to have 15 more than the 219 necessary for a majority. As the house committee controls rules and all legislations and investigations originate and are controlled by the majority, the chances for legislative upheaval are apparent.

A great contest is foreshadowed between President Wilson and his reconstruction policies and Republican leaders and their policies. Upon questions relating to domestic policy, the Republicans may refuse to accept the president's guidance because they regard Tuesday's vote as a vote of confidence in the Republican party whose reconstruction plans have been partly disclosed already.

Wilson Announces Surrender of Huns Is Unconditional

Germany's surrender is absolute unconditional.

President Wilson has officially announced it in Washington. The streets of the capital are wild, and government clerks have been given a holiday in celebration.

This was learned by Congressman S. D. Fess in a long distance telephone communication with Washington early this afternoon, after the first news of the signing of the armistice came here.

The terms of the armistice, said Dr. Fess are similar to those of Austria. Germany has to lay down her arms and surrender.

The forces of the allies will occupy the strongholds along the border, for security.

There must be immediate evacuation of all occupied territory. While the armistice terms have not been made public they are certain to strip Germany to the last shred of military power. In part the nature of the terms meted out to Germany is state authoritatively the terms include briefly: Cessation of hostilities, demobilization of her army, delivering to the allies of half her artillery and equipment, evacuation of all invaded territory.

XENIA CELEBRATES ALLIED VICTORY

With the blowing of whistles, the ringing of bells, the floating of Old Glory to the breezes and the excited shouts of the multitude as they learned the news, Xenia celebrated the signing of the armistice between the allied nations and Germany this afternoon.

Crowds surrounding the bulletin which was posted in a window of the Gazette and Republican carried the news abroad.

"The war is over," "The war is over," they shouted.

Trash burning in an open fireplace in a batcher's house on the farm of H. D. Whittington on the Stone Road, burned the building, a small frame affair, and threatened the house dwelling late Tuesday afternoon. Neighbors who gathered, helped the family to throw water on the dwelling, preventing its igniting, and the fact that there was no wind also prevented the spread of the flames. The damage is covered by insurance.

Mrs. George Shoemaker of Chicago, who has been the guest of Mrs. Fernando Shoemaker at Goes Station, has gone to Wood River, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis, to visit her son.

JUNIOR WOMANS CLUB HOLDS DELAYED MEET

The first meeting of the season of the Junior Women's club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Graham Bryson, on the Clifton pike. This meeting was scheduled for October 8th, but owing to the influenza epidemic had to be postponed until Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by addresses by Mrs. S. O. Hale, the new president, and Mrs. Frank Smith, ex-president of the club.

After the business program, Mrs. D. D. Jones talked about the "Evolution of the Home," after which Mrs. McGervey sang two beautiful solos, "A Soldier's Dream," and "The Vow."

Miss Helen Johe read a paper, her subject being "The History of Dress and Who Dictates Our Styles."

The meetings will be held every Tuesday afternoon until the club catches up with the schedule.

NEPHEW OF XENIAN KILLED IN FRANCE

Word was received Sunday by Mrs. Bernard Klein of the death of her nephew, Private John E. Luibel, a former Springfield boy, who died of wounds in France, on October 1.

While in Springfield, he was employed by the Crowell Publishing Company. Private Klein enlisted in Springfield and entered the service on May 31, 1917, and was in Co. B, 17th Infantry, which was stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga.

He left the states about the first of August and had been in several small battles when wounded. His wounds were not thought to be serious and he wrote home that he was getting well fast, so that he could go along with his company on a big drive, which was to take place soon.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Luibel, two sisters, Miss Helen at home, and Mrs. William McCullough of Springfield, four brothers, Frank and George of Springfield, Elmer of Memphis, Tenn., and William, who is now at Camp Jackson, S. C.

Private Klein was well known in Xenia and had many friends who will be sorry to hear of his death.

Iris and Orange Water. Did you ever try an iris water bath, or hear of such a thing? They are quite regular occurrences in Japan at certain times of the year, both in the homes of people and in their public bathhouses. Iris water bath day occurs May 8. When the iris is placed in warm water it gives off a volatile oil which has a pleasant odor, so it is said. On this one day of the year these baths are furnished to all frequenters of the public bathhouses and are popular. During the winter season the inhabitants of the flowery kingdom enjoy another famous bathing day. Orange-flower water is then used and enjoyed.

Natural or Acquired.

One business man says that no matter how busy he is he gives 20 minutes every day to getting his desk in good condition. For years he struggled to catch up with himself by taking a day every now and then and devoting it to getting order out of chaos. One day his young stenographer suggested to him to give just 20 minutes a day to "straightening out things." "I have found," he said, "that 20 minutes every day is worth many days' time if given intelligently. The only way to have things straight is to keep them straight. And the only way to keep them straight is to keep them so day in and day out."

PUBLIC SALES

Have your sale announced FREE in this column early, so that you may claim your date and others will stay off of it. These ads are run every day and are gratis with the large display advertising. We also furnish auto bills without charge. Let us tell you about it.

PUBLIC SALE—Nov. 8th, at 1 o'clock, at my residence 9 miles southeast of Xenia, and one mile south from the Spring Valley and Paintersville pike. 4 horses, 5 cattle, 8 fall pigs, 500 bushels in crib, chickens, Irish and sweet potatoes and some farm implements. Mills, Auct. N. C. L. E. RUDDUCK.

PUBLIC SALE advertising in the Gazette and Republican bring the crowds. In the days of automobiles, the farmer has no time to stop along the road to read sale bills. He is coming to depend upon these papers to notify him of the sale dates and articles to be offered for sale. It is the buyer from a distance who sees your ad in this paper, who jumps in his auto and hustles to your sale, who pays what your stuff is worth. Your neighbor no longer can stand around and pick off what he needs at an absurd price, as he does when you have not properly advertised, and gotten a good crowd. Use the Gazette and Republican if you want the worth of everything you offer. Don't try to save on your advertising.

Protection From Live Wires.

For the sure protection of linemen handling live wires a pair of gloves inside and one outside of the rubber gloves have been recommended. The woven fabric inside glove takes up perspiration and shields the rubber from the finger nails and a leather gauntlet over the rubber glove protects from outside mechanical injury, aids in grasping tools and keeps the hands warm in winter.

Plows Rough Lands.

A special type of plow for use in rough country, where labor is high and scarce is known as the "stump-jump." This plow was invented and is used in western Australia, where the farm land is cluttered with roots and stumps.

AMERICAN DEMOCRACY AND ENGLISH ARIS- TOCRACY.

We are constantly impressed with the deep and wide chasm between the American spirit of democracy and that of British aristocracy. Indeed, we have no sympathy for it. Many efforts during the war have been made to arouse our enthusiasm over the king of that country, and the lord bishops who have visited us in behalf of our allies have been met with a cold response when they sought to arouse us over anything that pertained to their nobility. Kings, queens, princes, knights, lords, and ladies are a parade of empty nothingness to us. We feel more like laughing when their functions and ceremonies are portrayed with an effort to interest us.

When one of the archbishops was present in this country, making a tour in behalf of the moral aims of the war, the great commonality of the democratic life of America found small interest in him as an ecclesiastical functionary. His beautiful spirit, his straight-forward address, and his remarkable personality made a profound impression wherever he went. But the moment he thrust his church and his king into the foreground there was a very perceptible change of attitude toward him. At a psychological moment in one address we heard him make, he sought to magnify his king and appealed to our sympathies for him in the trying time of his empire, when hundreds of his people were dying, by telling how greatly he appreciated what America was doing. It was a beautiful piece of work on the part of the archbishop, but the response was reluctant and little more than an expression of courtesy.

Then, later, we heard Bishop W. F. Anderson read, to the mirth of his audience, during his famous lecture on "Uncle Sam's Job in Europe," a telegram from a railroad station agent that was so ridiculously loaded with flattery of aristocracy that it afforded one of the most amusing things during his address. He remarked that his American democracy was greatly embarrassed when he heard himself called "my lord bishop," and then read jocularly, to his own enjoyment as well as that of his audience, the following:

"My Lord Bishop: I have your Lordship's favor, and in reply beg to say that a single sleeping berth will be reserved for your Lordship on Monday, 8th inst., by the 9 P. M. Perth to Boston, as desired. I remain, my Lord Bishop, your Lordship's most obedient servant."

An American audience never takes a thing of this kind seriously. That spirit of the underlying catering to official royalty, either in church or state, is obnoxious. It starts a sneer and creates disgust. The American spirit cannot understand how another can speak of my king, my prince, my lord. In democratic chagrin it protests:

The spirit that serves as a menial, that bows insincerely, that plays at court and caters to social class finds no favor in the heart of a sincere American. For this we most steadfastly contend that kings and their ruling class must go. Also, we thank God that the day of the rule of Great Britain by an aristocracy is passing. Representatives of the people are now at the head of the government. Under the present democratic king the time-worn, age-long, and blue-blooded nobility is passing out of power. The day of the Great Britisher is upon the empire. We join hands across the sea to congratulate them.—Western Christian Advocate.

THE PRISONER AT THE BAR.

The German peace offer had one fatal defect. It rested on a fundamental error. That error was the assumption that Germany was in a position to negotiate for peace, at an armistice table, on equal terms with the Allies.

There is no equality, militarily or economically. Still less is there any equality morally or legally. All of Germany's claims to equal consideration as a world power have been forfeited by her crimes—as that of any other criminal. All proposals of equality of status, therefore, were absurd.

Germany could not participate jointly in a round-table war conference of the powers. Germany was not competent to sit in a tribunal undertaking to settle the international affairs of the world. Germany is a criminal being brought to justice. She is the prisoner at the bar. She may plead innocent or guilty as she pleases—it will make no difference. The judge and jury will pay slight attention to her plea. They will hear the evidence of responsible and trustworthy witnesses, then give their verdict and pronounce sentence, as we are now about to do.

The evidence will show that the prisoner at bar has burned villages, bombarded hospitals, poisoned springs, and that without any military justification; to have devastated whole regions and destroyed the artistic treasures of mankind; to have killed women and mutilated children, during the years when the population were held conquered; to have cast aside, in the name of God, the warrior's virtues, and substituted for them premeditated and wholesale assassination. This is the work of this prisoner at the bar.

So long as such crimes have not been expiated, the war must go on. So long as humanity can fear the return of similar atrocities peace is impossible. When the German government and people once grasp this situation, then peace operations will be simplified, in order to preserve, from the barbarians, the priceless victories of a civilized world; in order to guarantee our children against the universal oppression of brutal force; in order to assure the rule of Liberty, of Justice, and of Right; in order to save the world.

BIBLE TEACHERS TRAINING CLASS TO BE RESUMED

The ban upon public gatherings having been lifted in so far as adults are concerned, the meeting for the study of the Sabbath School lessons in the chapel of the Theological Seminary will be resumed this Thursday evening, November 7, at seven-thirty o'clock.

The program of exercises will be similar to that of the last meeting. Dr. Wishart will speak of the historical setting of the lesson. Dr. Johnson will give an exposition of the passage. Dr. M. G. Kyle will offer suggestions as to methods of study in preparation for teaching, and Dr. Joseph Kyle will note practical lessons to be emphasized in the class room. The Scripture under consideration will be that assigned by the International Committee for Sabbath, November the tenth: Genesis 27:18-29.

THIRD VICTIM IS CLAIMED AT THE O. S. & S. O. HOME

After an illness of ten days' duration of influenza and pneumonia, with other complications, Arthur Marquart, 12 years old, died at the O. S. and S. O. Home hospital late Thursday afternoon. His death is the third that has occurred as a result of the influenza and pneumonia epidemic which during the last three weeks has swept the institution.

Dr. Hewitt said that the lad had cerebral complications which made his case more serious, and that his lungs were clearing and the pneumonia symptoms disappearing when he died. His mother Mrs. Stella First, of Columbus, had been with him for five days before he died, and she will accompany the body to Columbus Thursday.

While other pneumonia cases at the institution are thought to be doing nicely, sudden complications which may mean the end are always looked for. There are still two children down in bed ill of the influenza or pneumonia, but the number is being reduced gradually, and it is thought that possibly today, the last of the temporary hospital wards, that in the school house, may be closed, and all the patients confined to the four regular hospital wards.

There are still a few children taking the influenza. Two or three new cases are being received daily now, and it is expected that very few children will escape. That there have been over 600 cases of the malady and only three deaths among the children, is considered a good record.

DEATH OF GLEESON M'CARTY IN FRANCE HAS BEEN CONFIRMED

Confirmation of the reported death of E. Gleeson McCarty, which occurred in Sorento, Italy, October 8, has been received by his family in Columbus, in a letter from the army chaplain who was with him in his last hours.

Private McCarty died of disease in a hospital in Sorento, a short time after his arrival there. As the Eighty-fourth division of which he was a member sailed September 5, it is supposed that he was sent directly to Italy.

Mr. McCarty went across as amusement director of the Eighty-fourth Division, which trained at Camp Sherman. His home was in Columbus, and he was a son of John McCarty, of 100 North Twentieth street. He is also survived by three brothers, John Jr., Thomas and James, and a sister, Miss Margaret McCarty.

He was prominently known as a producer of amateur theatricals, and a writer of plays and magazine articles. He has produced and directed several home talent performances in this city, and became well known and very popular here. He was also popular in Columbus, and with the boys of the Eighty-fourth division.

He directed the Camp Sherman minstrel show which was given at Memorial Hall in Columbus several months ago.

Confirmation of his death is received with keen regret by his many friends in Xenia.

Embarrassing.
At a place of worship in Bedfordshire, England, a member of the congregation went to sleep during the sermon and slipped off the seat just as the hymn, "Christians, cast not away your hope" was sung.

Obituary

In memory of Jerry Mark Burlie, who was killed in action in France on the 28th of September, 1918.

Oh, we miss him, yes we miss him
Whom we loved with all our hearts,
He has gone to rest forever,
With him we had to part.

He is gone but not forgotten,
Jesus took our dear brother,
There is a vacant place in our home
Which can't be filled by another.

Oh, our hearts are full of sorrow,
And our home is sad and dreary
Yes, we miss our dear brother,
The one we loved so dearly.
Mother and Sisters.

Robert Carl Davis was born January 18, 1912, and departed this life October 8, 1918, at 5:30, aged 6 years, 9 months and 20 days. Robert was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Davis, and besides his mother and father he leaves two brothers, Frank and Laurence, to mourn their loss. Robert was the pet of the neighborhood and made many friends, was of a loving disposition, and was loved by all who knew him. He was enrolled at the first grade of the Orient Hill school and will be missed by his little classmates and teacher, Mary Evers. Robert was patriotic and his whole thought was of his uncle, William Hurler, who is in France, and always spoke of his return that he might salute him. But as God knows best, He doeth all things well. All was done by friends and neighbors to relieve his suffering and stricken parents. So we will have to look to God for comfort, and when we depart we may meet little Robert on the golden shore who will greet us with a smile.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and kindness shown us by friends, relatives and neighbors during the sad bereavement in the loss of our dear little son and brother. Especially do we thank Rev. Biddlecum for his consoling words, and Dr. and Mrs. Lackey for singing. We thank each and every one for the beautiful floral offerings, flowers he loved so well in life. We also thank the undertaker, Mr. Need for his kindness and services.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvin C. Davis and brothers, Frank and Laurence.

TROY AND XENIA TO 'MIX IT' IN A GAME ON FRIDAY

The local football team will have Troy Hi to furnish opposition this week. Not much is known as to the strength of the Troy team as it has been unable to play on account of influenza, but Troy has the reputation of always putting a fast team on the field. The game will be played Friday afternoon instead of Saturday to give the business men a chance to attend.

The game will be played at Roberts' field at 2:30 o'clock. The admission is 35c to those not holding season tickets. Season tickets will admit bearer to game as before.

The influenza seems to have thrown a hoodoo into the team for it has not won a game since school closed. They have lost their last three games, one to Springfield and two to Steele. The boys are determined to shake off the hoodoo, for school will likely open Monday and they want to start back with a victory. Friday's game therefore promises to be one of the hottest fought battles of the entire season. Last year the same team defeated Troy for the first time in sixteen years and the players are anxious to keep the record clean this year.

Varying Tastes in Humor.

There is no accounting for taste in humor. It varies from generation to generation. It varies even in a single individual. Where are the jokes of his youth? To think that he once laughed at them, now almost makes him writhe. But, then, there are his children. He has the consolation of seeing them explode at the old jests which have come to seem to him abjectly feeble and empty. He discovers that, to his innocent prattlers, he himself appears a mighty humorist in his table talk! It is a quiet lesson to him in the way times change, and we change with them. The child is not the father of the man, in the matter of humorous appreciation. At least, if he is, it is a reflection on the man, for not putting away childish things.

HUNS SURRENDER UNCONDITIONALLY

Wilson Announces Surrender of Huns Is Unconditional

Germany's surrender is absolutely unconditional.

President Wilson has officially announced it in Washington. The streets of the capital are wild, and government clerks have been given a holiday in celebration.

This was learned by Congressman S. D. Fess in a long distance telephone communication with Washington early this afternoon, after the first news of the signing of the armistice came here.

The terms of the armistice, said Dr. Fess are similar to those of Austria. Germany has to lay down her arms and surrender.

The forces of the allies will occupy the strongholds along the border, for security.

There must be immediate evacuation of all occupied territory. While the armistice terms have not been made public they are certain to strip Germany to the last shred of military power. In part the nature of the terms meted out to Germany it stated authoritatively, the terms include briefly: Cessation of hostilities, demobilization of her army, delivering to the allies of half her artillery and equipment, evacuation of all invaded territory.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTROL HOUSE- SENATE IN DOUBT

BY L. C. MARTIN
Washington, Nov. 7.—With the house of Representatives Republican and control of the senate still in doubt, a tremendous over-turn of legislative affairs, is expected after March 4, next.

The passing from Democratic to Republican control of the house means that all of the great house committee chairmanships will revert to republicans. Whether a similar change will take place also in the senate appeared today to depend upon the final returns from three states—New Mexico, Idaho and Michigan.

Exclusive of these three states, the Republicans today appeared to have 47 votes in the senate to 46 for the Democrats. The Republicans must get two of the doubtful states to win the majority. On the face of the returns today it would appear that the Republicans had landed New Mexico and Michigan by the closest margin, while Nugent, Democrat, was leading in Idaho.

If this situation is realized finally, the senate will stand Republican 49, Democrat 47.
Should the Republicans win only one of the three doubtful states, there would be a tie, and Vice President

Marshal would hold the balance of power.

With five districts yet to be counted, the republicans seem to have 15 more than the 219 necessary for a majority.

As the house committee controls rules and all legislations and investigations originate and are controlled by the majority, the chances for legislative upheaval are apparent.

A great contest is foreshadowed between President Wilson and his reconstruction policies and Republican leaders and their policies. Upon questions relating to domestic policy, the Republicans may refuse to accept the president's guidance because they regard Tuesday's vote as a vote of confidence in the Republican party whose reconstruction plans have been partly disclosed already.

Foreseeing the inevitable conflict, in which the advantage will rest with congress, since it makes the laws, the president's friends in congress may attempt to forestall the Republicans by acting now. Control does not pass from Democratic hands until March 4, next. In the short December session, Democrats may try to pass the Overman reconstruction resolution, providing for study of reconstruction problems and framing of necessary measures by a commission to be named by the president.

Republicans would put all reconstruction questions up to congress through a joint congressional reconstruction committee.

Meantime President Wilson is pre-

XENIA CELEBRATES ALLIED VICTORY

With the blowing of whistles, the ringing of bells, the floating of Old Glory to the breezes and the excited shouts of the multitude as they learned the news, Xenia celebrated the signing of the armistice between the allied nations and Germany this afternoon.

Crowds surrounding the bulletin which was posted in a window of the Gazette and Republican carried the news abroad.

"The war is over," "The war is over," they shouted.

Sirens at the mills of The Hooven and Allison and the R. A. Kelly Company shrieked abroad the tidings of the greatest event in history.

People crowded about bulletins and then carried away the news which spread like wildfire over the city and the country by shouts of the people and by telephone.

Flags ran up on staffs like magic. Somebody in the center of the business district dragged out an old store of fireworks and they sent up their impotent boom to add to the general jollification.

A rifle shot rang out. Again and again sharp reports followed each other from the weapon whose owner felt himself entirely justified in disregarding the ordinance against shooting firearms within the city limits. The rifles were shot from in front of the Babb hardware store.

The court house clock added its bit to the jollification. Some one entered the clock tower and started the giant striking. Again and again, for an hour or more, its mighty boom rang out, slowly, solemnly, as if saying, "I am tolling the knell of autocracy."

Rushing about the city, the new fire truck, with City Fireman "Petey" Mahanna at the wheel, shrieked its wild siren constantly.

The crowds were wild. Men shouted and laughed. Women cried and laughed hysterically. Automobile trucks filled with men and boys blowing horns and waving flags, rushed about the streets.

As the afternoon progressed the jollification became more general and noisier. Workers from factories and shops about town began parading, blowing horns and waving banners.

Everybody added his bit to the noise. The town broke loose, and all classes helped in the general celebration, that proclaimed to local people the end of autocracy and the beginning of the reign of world democracy.

The celebration was crowned with a big parade toward the middle of the afternoon, business houses closing in order that all could join in the celebration.

END OF WAR COMES WITH HUNS BEATEN TO THEIR KNEES

BY J. W. T. MASON.
New York, Nov. 7.—The end of the war has come with the German army beaten to its knees and compelled to accept unconditional surrender.

The final day of hostilities found one-half the German troops in France trapped south of the Ardennes by the brilliant offensive of the American army, which closed the Luxembourg gap so that the Germans could not retreat.

The German surrender is not due primarily to the desertion of German by her allies, but to the fact that the forces of democracy arrayed against her on the western front have overthrown the German armies on the battle field.

The day of surrender sees the Kaiser's great forces so entangled in the meshes of their own retirement as to make it impossible for them ever to have reached the German frontier except as a remnant. Marshal Foch's extraordinary successful strategy since mid-summer has now reaped its fruit.

Had the war continued it would in reality have become a massacre. The German armies have lost such frightful casualties in their effort to get out of France and Belgium, as has threatened annihilation of all of Germany's military man power. There

SALUTE THE EAST
"All employees get up and salute the East. Respects to Generals Pershing and Foch."
Signed—W. G. McAdoo, Director General of Railroads.
This message, sent from Washington at 2:28 Thursday afternoon, was received by local railroad officials and for a moment the wheels of railroad industry stopped while every man and woman worker stood for a moment and paid silent tribute to the great commanders whose wonderful ability made possible the victory over Germany.

DRYS ARE VICTORS IN OHIO

Columbus, Nov. 7.—With less than 200 precincts missing, tabulation of the vote on the prohibition amendment today showed a dry majority of 16,934.

The vote was: Dry, 443,314; wet, 426,480.

James White, dry manager, expects additional returns to increase the majority.

L. H. Gibson, wet manager, says he is waiting for the official count. The adoption of the prohibition amendment as indicated by the latest figures, means a saloonless Ohio after next May 27, but does not take the liquor question out of politics.

According to latest returns the new Ohio legislature will be pledged to ratify the federal prohibition amendment. If it does, the legislature's action will be carried to the people for a vote under the referendum amendment, which was adopted by a large majority, Tuesday.

This referendum amendment, initiated by the wets with this in view, reserves to the people the power to approve or reject any action of the general assembly, ratifying any proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States.

Federal prohibition becomes effective after the legislatures of thirty-six of the forty-eight states ratify it. Fourteen states have so far ratified the amendment.

When Ohio goes dry by state amendment, the people may vote it wet at any time a new amendment is submitted, unless national prohibition goes into effect.

"Ohio has won the greatest victory against organized vice and crime ever won by an individual state," said Dry Leader White today.

"Our next moves will be the ratification of the national prohibition amendment by the incoming legislature, the passing of law enforcement measures and the aiding of saloonkeepers to secure positions in productive employment."

is no truth in the reports that last phase of the war has shown the Germans as masters in the art of retreat.

Their efforts to reach their own territory in such big haste has been a failure. Von Hindenburg was only half way and unable to make the rest of the way with an army fit to defend the Rhine.

GREATEST WAR IN HISTORY OF WORLD IS ENDED

PARIS, NOV. 7.—THE GREATEST WAR IN HIS TORY OF ALL TIME CAME TO AN END AT 2 P. M. TODAY.

THE ALLIES AND GERMANY SIGNED AN ARMISTICE THREE HOURS EARLIER ON THE BATTLEFIELD. THE GERMAN DELEGATION HAD COME INTO THE ALLIED LINES UNDER A WHITE FLAG.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The war is over. Germany and the allies signed an armistice at 11 a. m., today, hostilities ceasing three hours later.

As Marshal Foch's terms are known to include provision which will prevent resumption of hostilities, the great war of all time has come to an end.

At the time of signing the document, the allied armies were smashing forward on a 150-mile front, from the Scheldt to the Meuse, tearing the German defense to pieces and driving the enemy in utter rout. The Americans took Sedan this morning and great gains were made at all points on the battle front.

Before the terms were submitted to Germany, the kaiser was forced to apply to Marshal Foch and Admiral Weymes, as military and naval representatives of the allies under a flag of truce.

By ROBERT J. BENDER
Washington, Nov. 7.—With the close of the great war at 2 o'clock this afternoon, America celebrated her greatest contribution to world's freedom.

Her's was the moral and mortal help that turned the tide of the bloodiest wars of history, and peace today marks this nation's 19th month, to a day, as a co-belligerent in the struggle. America's too, were the fundamental principles upon which the armistice and peace were based. And now, the greatest problem before the world, officials say, is to thresh out in conference a peace that will insure against future wars.

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is certainly a most pleasant and efficient solution of the 'castor oil problem' that confronts most mothers." (From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mrs. Chas. Daly, 412 Shonnard St., Syracuse, N. Y.)

For most children a mild laxative, administered occasionally, is all that is necessary to assure normal regularity and consequent good health. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a pleasant-tasting combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that acts gently, yet effectively; children like it and take it readily.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT

Kidney and bladder troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow upon you slowly but steadily, undermining your health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES now. Take three or four every day until you feel that you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The good housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. Their use restores strength and is responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results, your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. GEORGE KESTER TO GET THE FIRST XMAS BOX SHIPPED George William Kester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kester of South Detroit street, will receive the first Christmas box to be shipped from Xenia to soldiers overseas.

The carton, packed with such goodies as a loving mother could put in the small space permitted, was mailed out by the local Red Cross Wednesday afternoon. Young Kester is a member of Wagoner Supply Company, 333rd Inf. N.Y.

The pasteboard cartons provided by the Red Cross for soldiers overseas Christmas packages, will hold just two pounds and 15 ounces, and when wrapped and labeled, must not weigh more than three pounds.

The boxes, when they are filled, must be taken to the room which has been opened by the Red Cross in the Bijou theatre building on Green street, where they will be inspected, wrapped and labeled with the label which the boy sends from overseas. The name of the person who inspected the package must be written on the wrapper. A box which does not bear the label from overseas, can not be sent to a soldier.

Into the Valley of the Shadow

UNDER the candles of the village church the American wounded lie in close even rows. Straight down to the door they are packed together. Outside an ambulance arrives, and deftly, quietly, the Soldiers of Cheer slip out to help the Army's litter-bearers lift out the wounded and carry them into the yard or the church or the school—wherever there is room.

The ambulance whirs off again along the street, torn road, and still these messengers of friendliness pass in and out among the soldiers—holding cups of steaming chocolate to their lips, giving them lighted cigarettes, shifting their positions.

From one corner a boy's voice calls out:

"I got it pretty bad. Will you send home a message for me?"

A friendly face bends over him. He whispers his mother's name and her address. He asks that she be told where he was struck and how.

"Is there anything else?" asks the man above him. He hesitates a moment. Then, so softly that the older man can barely hear, he murmurs a girl's name, and dies.

To be there when a wounded soldier needs them, is a privilege which comes to your representatives in the seven war work organizations. After every push, when the field hospitals are full to overflowing, there are calls for every available worker in the area.

They come from miles around, after their day's work is over at their own huts and canteens. And then through all the night they help the wounded fight their battles.

The grief of many a mother or a wife or sister here at home has been made easier by the letters which these men have written there beside the stretchers.

Keep the Soldiers of Cheer on the job—the 7,000 who are there already and the 1,000 a month for whom Pershing calls.

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

The need is for a sum 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the war began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their

AMERICAN DEMOCRACY AND ENGLISH ARIS- TOCRACY.

We are constantly impressed with the deep and wide chasm between the American spirit of democracy and that of British aristocracy. Indeed, we have no sympathy for it. Many efforts during the war have been made to arouse our enthusiasm over the king of that country, and the lord bishops who have visited us in behalf of our allies have been met with a cold response when they sought to arouse us over anything that pertained to their nobility. Kings, queens, princes, knights, lords, and ladies are a parade of empty nothingness to us. We feel more like laughing when their functions and ceremonies are portrayed with an effort to interest us.

When one of the archbishops was present in this country, making a tour in behalf of the moral aims of the war, the great commonality of the democratic life of America found small interest in him as an ecclesiastical functionary. His beautiful spirit, his straight-forward address, and his remarkable personality made a profound impression wherever he went. But the moment he thrust his church and his king into the foreground there was a very perceptible change of attitude toward him. At a psychological moment in one address we heard him make he sought to magnify his king and appealed to our sympathies for him in the trying time of his empire, when hundreds of his people were dying, by telling how greatly he appreciated what America was doing. It was a beautiful piece of work on the part of the archbishop, but the response was reluctant and little more than an expression of courtesy.

Then, later, we heard Bishop W. F. Anderson read, to the mirth of his audience, during his famous lecture on "Uncle Sam's Job in Europe," a telegram from a railroad station agent that was so ridiculously loaded with cant of aristocracy that it afforded one of the most amusing things during his address. He remarked that his American democracy was greatly embarrassed when he heard himself called "my lord bishop," and then read jocularly, to his own enjoyment as well as that of his audience, the following:

"My Lord Bishop: I have your Lordship's favor, and in reply beg to say that a single sleeping berth will be reserved for your Lordship on Monday, 8th inst., by the 9 P. M. Perth to Euston, as desired. I remain, my Lord Bishop, your Lordship's most obedient servant."

An American audience never takes a thing of this kind seriously. That spirit of the underling catering to official royalty, either in church or state, is obnoxious. It starts a sneer and creates disgust. The American spirit cannot understand how another can speak of my king, my prince, my lord. In democratic chagrin it protests:

The spirit that serves as a menial, that bows insincerely, that plays at cant and caters to social class finds no favor in the heart of a sincere American. For this we most steadfastly contend that kings and their ruling class must go. Also, we thank God that the day of the rule of Great Britain by an aristocracy is passing. Representatives of the people are now at the head of the government. Under the present democratic king the time-worn, age-long, and blue-blooded nobility is passing out of power. The day of the Great Britisher is upon the empire. We join hands across the sea to congratulate them.—Western Christian Advocate.

THE PRISONER AT THE BAR.

The German peace offer had one fatal defect. It rested on a fundamental error. That error was the assumption that Germany was in a position to negotiate for peace, at an armistice table, on equal terms with the Allies.

There is no equality, militarily or economically. Still less is there any equality morally or legally. All of Germany's claims to equal consideration as a world power have been forfeited by her crimes—as that of any other criminal. All proposals of equality of status, therefore, were absurd.

Germany could not participate jointly in a round-table war conference of the powers. Germany was not competent to sit in a tribunal undertaking to settle the international affairs of the world. Germany is a criminal being brought to justice. She is the prisoner at the bar. She may plead innocent or guilty as she pleases—it will make no difference. The judge and jury will pay slight attention to her plea. They will hear the evidence of responsible and trustworthy witnesses, then give their verdict and pronounce sentence, as we are now about to do.

The evidence will show that the prisoner at bar has burned villages, bombarded hospitals, poisoned springs, and that without any military justification; to have devastated whole regions and destroyed the artistic treasures of mankind; to have killed women and mutilated children, during the years when the population were held conquered; to have cast aside, in the name of God, the warrior's virtues, and substituted for them premeditated and wholesale assassination. This is the work of this prisoner at the bar.

So long as such crimes have not been expiated, the war must go on. So long as humanity can fear the return of similar atrocities peace is impossible. When the German government and people once grasp this situation, then peace operations will be simplified, in order to preserve, from the barbarians, the priceless victories of a civilized world; in order to guarantee our children against the universal oppression of brutal force; in order to assure the rule of Liberty, of Justice, and of Right; in order to save the world.

The ban upon public gatherings having been lifted in so far as adults are concerned, the meeting for the study of the Sabbath School lessons in the chapel of the Theological Seminary will be resumed this Thursday evening, November 7, at seven-thirty o'clock.

The program of exercises will be similar to that of the last meeting. Dr. Wishart will speak of the historical setting of the lesson, Dr. Johnson will give an exposition of the passage, Dr. M. G. Kyle will offer suggestions as to methods of study in preparation for teaching, and Dr. Joseph Kyle will note practical lessons to be emphasized in the class room. The Scripture under consideration will be that assigned by the International Committee for Sabbath, November the tenth: Genesis 27:18-29.

THIRD VICTIM IS CLAIMED AT THE O. S. & S. O. HOME

After an illness of ten days' duration of influenza and pneumonia, with other complications, Arthur Marquart, 12 years old, died at the O. S. and S. O. Home hospital late Thursday afternoon. His death is the third that has occurred as a result of the influenza and pneumonia epidemic which during the last three weeks has swept the institution.

Dr. Hewitt said that the lad had had cerebral complications which made his case more serious, and that his lungs were clearing and the pneumonia symptoms disappearing when he died. His mother Mrs. Stella First, of Columbus, had been with him for five days before he died, and she will accompany the body to Columbus Thursday.

While other pneumonia cases at the institution are thought to be doing nicely, sudden complications which may mean the end are always looked for. There are still 100 children down in bed ill of the influenza or pneumonia, but the number is being reduced gradually, and it is thought that possibly today, the last of the temporary hospital wards, that in the school house, may be closed, and all the patients confined to the four regular hospital wards.

There are still a few children taking the influenza. Two or three new cases are being received daily now, and it is expected that very few children will escape. That there have been over 600 cases of the malady and only three deaths among the children, is considered a good record.

DEATH OF GLEESON M'CARTY IN FRANCE HAS BEEN CONFIRMED

Confirmation of the reported death of E. Gleeson McCarty, which occurred in Sorento, Italy, October 8, has been received by his family in Columbus, in a letter from the army chaplain who was with him in his last hours.

Private McCarty died of disease in a hospital in Sorento, a short time after his arrival there. As the Eighty-fourth division of which he was a member sailed September 5, it is supposed that he was sent directly to Italy.

Mr. McCarty went across as amusement director of the Eighty-fourth Division, which trained at Camp Sherman. His home was in Columbus, and he was a son of John McCarty, of 100 North Twentieth street. He is also survived by three brothers, John Jr., Thomas and James, and a sister, Miss Margaret McCarty.

He was prominently known as a producer of amateur theatricals, and a writer of plays and magazine articles. He has produced and directed several home talent performances in this city, and became well known and very popular here. He was also popular in Columbus, and with the boys of the Eighty-fourth division.

He directed the Camp Sherman minstrel show which was given at Memorial Hall in Columbus several months ago.

Confirmation of his death is received with keen regret by his many friends in Xenia.

Embarrassing.

At a place of worship in Bedfordshire, England, a member of the congregation went to sleep during the sermon and slipped off the seat just as the hymn, "Christians awake and yet repose," was sung.

In memory of Jerry Mark Burlile, who was killed in action in France on the 28th of September, 1918.

Oh, we miss him, yes we miss him
Whom we loved with all our hearts,
He has gone to rest forever,
With him we had to part.

He is gone but not forgotten,
Jesus took our dear brother,
There is a vacant place in our home
Which can't be filled by another.

Oh, our hearts are full of sorrow,
And our home is sad and dreary
Yes, we miss our dear brother,
The one we loved so dearly.
Mother and Sisters.

Robert Carl Davis was born January 18, 1912, and departed this life October 8, 1918, at 5:30, aged 6 years, 9 months and 20 days. Robert was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Davis, and besides his mother and father he leaves two brothers, Frank and Laurence, to mourn their loss. Robert was the pet of the neighborhood and made many friends, was of a loving disposition, and was loved by all who knew him. He was enrolled at the first grade of the Orient Hill school and will be missed by his little classmates and teacher, Mary Evers. Robert was patriotic and his whole thought was of his uncle, William Hurless, who is in France, and always spoke of his return that he might salute him. But as God knows best, He doeth all things well. All was done by friends and neighbors to relieve his suffering and stricken parents. So we will have to look to God for comfort, and when we depart we may meet little Robert on the golden shore who will greet us with a smile.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and kindness shown us by friends, relatives and neighbors during the sad bereavement in the loss of our dear little son and brother. Especially do we thank Rev. Biddlecum for his consoling words, and Dr. and Mrs. Lackey for singing. We thank each and every one for the beautiful floral offerings, flowers he loved so well in life. We also thank the undertaker, Mr. Neeld for his kindness and services.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin C. Davis and brothers, Frank and Laurence.

TROY AND XENIA TO 'MIX IT' IN A GAME ON FRIDAY

The local football team will have Troy Hi to furnish opposition this week. Not much is known as to the strength of the Troy team as it has been unable to play on account of influenza, but Troy has the reputation of always putting a fast team on the field. The game will be played Friday afternoon instead of Saturday to give the business men a chance to attend.

The game will be played at Roberts' field at 2:30 o'clock. The admission is 35c to those not holding season tickets. Season tickets will admit bearer to game as before.

The influenza seems to have thrown a hoodoo into the team for it has not won a game since school closed. They have lost their last three games, one to Springfield and two to Steele. The boys are determined to shake off the hoodoo, for school will likely open Monday and they want to start back with a victory. Friday's game therefore promises to be one of the hottest fought battles of the entire season. Last year the same team defeated Troy for the first time in sixteen years and the players are anxious to keep the record clean this year.

Varying Tastes in Humor.

There is no accounting for taste in humor. It varies from generation to generation. It varies even in a single individual. Where are the jokes of his youth? To think that he once laughed at them, now almost makes him writhe. But, then, there are his children. He has the consolation of seeing them explode at the old jests which have come to seem to him abjectly feeble and empty. He discovers that, to his innocent prattlers, he himself appears a mighty humorist in his table talk! It is a quiet lesson to him in the way times change, and we change with them. The child is not the father of the man; in the matter of humorous appreciation. At least, if he is, it is a reflection on the man, for not putting away childish things.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. WHEN THE BOYS COME HOME

Be ready to greet them with a home that reflects your welcome.

Hundreds of homes are looking forward to that day "when the boys come home."

It will be a glorious occasion for, with victory behind them, our men will come, their hearts filled with eager anticipation of home comforts.

It behooves us all to make ready now for that eventful day because we would not disappoint them.

It is their right and privilege to have the home atmosphere reflect our joy at their safe return.

It's the goods, the goods, the goods, that makes this big store so attractive.

Manufacturing conditions are such that many kinds of furniture are scarce, yet we have provided generously a year ago for this condition at prices much lower than today's. The goods are here in great quantities and savings of from 15 to 30 per cent.

SPRING VALLEY

The many friends of Mr. Elam Truman are glad to know that he is regaining strength. His sons, Lyman and Springer, have been with him for several days.

Mr. Ray Peterson, of Chicago, who was taken ill with influenza soon after being called home by his father's death, has suffered a relapse and is very ill.

Mrs. Edward Kincaid of Dayton, was the guest Tuesday of her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Mason.

Mr. Charles Reynolds, the blacksmith, is able to be in his shop again after a severe illness of several months.

After two accidents at railroad crossings in our village within two weeks, a third accident was narrowly averted Tuesday evening, when Clarence Stump was almost caught at the Walnut street crossing in very nearly the same manner that Leon Wilson was caught at the same crossing in the morning. The position in which freight cars are left on the siding makes it very hard to see a train coming, and it is fortunate more people are not caught. The trains all run at a very high rate of speed through here with the exception of the accommodations. Spring Valley people have been indignant for years that the railroads showed such apparent indifference to endangering life at the crossings.

Mrs. Louisa Carr has returned home from caring for her daughter, Mrs. Mary Fetz, who has been ill with influenza.

The sale of the household goods of Mrs. Phoebe Ann Mills was largely attended.

Master Eugene Confer is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cospey.

Mrs. Ruth Murray of Oregon, was the guest Tuesday of her sister, Mrs. Lewis Pim.

The influenza is disappearing rapidly from our village.

Mr. Clarence Bulkerson has built an addition to his residence.

BAVARIA AND PRUSSIA ON EVE OF A BREAK

Berne, Nov. 7.—Berlin dispatches continue to hint at an approaching break between Bavaria and Prussia.

The Frankfurter Zeitung says the President of Bavaria council has arrived at Berlin to confer with the German leaders concerning the results of the Austrian armistice as affecting Bavaria, which would be the first country to suffer from an allied invasion through Austria.

The Frankfurt paper adds that military measures already have been taken.

HOW A SALESMAN SUFFERED

R. J. Porter, Sterling, Col., writes: "I suffered with a painful, weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, and the pain when I straightened up was awful. I was induced to try Foley Kidney Pills. Relief was immediate. Say, they are great." Prompt and tonic. Sayre & Hemphill.

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Easily prepared, and saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. ENGAGEMENT OF XENIANS ANNOUNCED

Miss Catherine Ryan entertained twenty of her girl friends at her home on West Second street, Wednesday night at a very pretty party. The house was decorated in yellow and white and chrysanthemums were used on the table. Just before the refreshments were served a very clever game was played in which Miss May Vaughn won the prize, a Cupid. A card attached to a ribbon around the neck of the Cupid bore the announcement of the engagement of Miss Mable Shaw to John Leahy, which Miss Vaughn read aloud to the guests. Dancing and games furnished the amusement for the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served. The wedding will take place some time in January. Both Mr. Leahy and Miss Shaw are well known and popular young people.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS FALLING OUT

Save your hair! Make it thick, wavy, glossy and beautiful at once.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of trap hair health.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A small trial bottle will double the beauty of your hair. Adv.

Amiability cannot atone for lack of force. Girls who are smiling and agreeable, but limp and inert in the presence of difficulties, do not command respect. URGENT DEMAND MADE FOR RED CROSS NURSES

There is an urgent demand for Red Cross workers, and women should not allow peace talk to cause them to lessen their labors for our boys "over there," who are now engaged in some of the hardest fighting of the war.

Ohio boys and Greene county lads, our own sons, brothers and friends are now engaged in the mighty struggle preceding the end, which is in sight, and the demand for hospital necessities for the wounded comes home to us as it has not previously.

The Red Cross rooms were re-opened Wednesday after having been closed for some time owing to the influenza epidemic, and they will be open for workers again all day Friday. Not as many workers as should have appeared were on hand Wednesday. This chapter has a quota of 750 irrigation pads, for this month 100 property bags, as well as comfort kits. There are hundreds of buttonholes to be made, as well as other work. Unless the women get out in sufficient numbers to do this work, the chapter will fall down on its quota for the month.

HENRY FORD IS STILL TAKING T. M. NEWBERRY'S DUST

Detroit, Nov. 7.—Truman H. Newberry was leading Henry Ford by approximately 6,000 votes today with less than 200 small rural normally republican precincts to hear from.

The Ohio War Board
Says Today

Labor must furnish the knockout punch for the boys "over there."

Without fullest co-operation from the boys at home, the Yanks can't win.

Soon they'll have mud, slush, snow and ice to fight along with the Hun.

You may think it's an inconvenience to give up your non-war job.

What's your inconvenience beside the sacrifice of those boys?

Jump in and help out. This is everybody's war.

Tint the Gray Hairs Away

Give the Natural Beauty of Your Face a Chance. Don't Spoil It
by Permitting Unbecoming
Gray or Streaked Hair to Show.

Gray hairs are never welcomed by a woman. Many women are so employed that gray hairs would lose them their positions and incomes.
And to practically all women, gray hair means the loss of attractiveness.

One simple application of "Brown-stone" will instantly tint the hair and surely bring back a youthful appearance.

You need not hesitate to use
"Brownstone"—for no previous experience is necessary and no harmful results can possibly follow from its use.

"Brownstone" is the one preparation of its kind and is guaranteed to be entirely free from sulphur, lead, silver, mercury, zinc, and lime, coal tar products or their derivatives.

"Brownstone" will give any shade, from light golden brown to the deepest brown—or black. It is sold by all leading drug stores and toilet counters everywhere. Two sizes, 35 cents and $1.15.

A sample and a booklet will be sent you (from manufacturers only) upon receipt of 10 cents. Mention shade desired when writing or purchasing.

Furniture the unforgotten Gift

A Remembrance That Is Unfading

Some give extravagantly—and their gifts are soon forgotten. Others give conservatively—yet their giving is always remembered. Why? It is not how much you buy; it is how wisely you buy that makes the difference.

To provide gifts that will endure—not mere passing fancies—has been our endeavor during the past months.
We have been busy locating the choicest offerings, and buying them in sufficient quantity to sell below usual prices.

So make your gift list up while at our store. You will find it very easy, for there is just the thing for every occasion and at every price. A small deposit will hold any selection and you may pay the balance at your convenience.

A Charming Bedroom
Every Day in the Year.

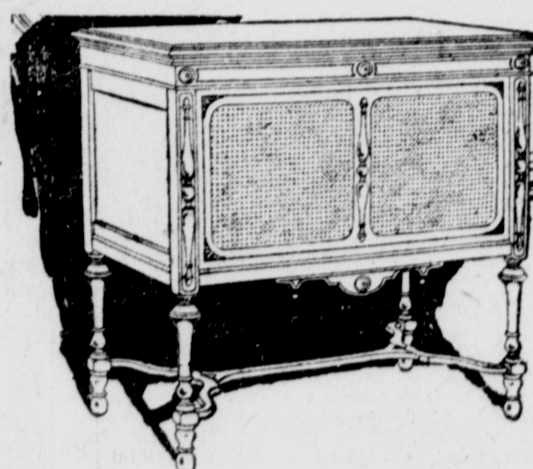

For those who seek a gift the charm of which will never wear away, nothing more suitable could be found than this remarkably beautiful bedroom set. Elegantly modeled after the period of Queen Anne, it will radiate a new atmosphere throughout the home in which it is placed. These master pieces may be had in solid American walnut. Early selection is advised.

The Windsor Phonograph

A PERIOD DESIGN
MASTERPIECE.

The Windsor Phonograph is a perfect musical instrument, designed,
built and finished by experts for people of discriminating taste—for those who want and will eventually demand in a phonograph something besides a mere talking machine.

The Windsor is a phonograph de luxe. It reproduces all music with unusual clearness and accuracy. It plays all disc records without change of attachment,
accommodates all needles,
and is operated with an ease that alone puts the Windsor in a class by itself.

But in addition to all this, the Windsor Phonograph is a beautiful, artistic and highly practical piece of furniture—one you will never grow tired of—one that will never become an eyesore—one that as a piece of furniture alone will pay back its cost hundreds of times over in satisfaction and service during the years to come.

The Windsor Phonograph, besides embodying all the latest and best principles of acoustic science, is designed in accordance with the better types of Period Furniture. It harmonizes perfectly with the furnishings of which it becomes a part and never fails to enhance the attractiveness of its surroundings. It can be placed in the living room in a convenient wall space or in front of a window, or in a hall as a console table, or in the dining room as a serving table.

Hear it and let it talk for itself.

STORY OF THE ARMISTICE IS CLAIMED RUMOR

Roy C. Howard, president of the United Press Association, who went to France for the special purpose of being on hand when the war ended, vouches for the truth of the statement that the armistice has been signed and that the war is over. The word that the end of the greatest conflict in the world's history has come was flashed to this country by the United Press at noon today and the dispatch signed by Mr. Howard. Upon the strength of this information all papers in the United States served by the United Press are announcing this evening that the war is over in spite of the claims of the Associated Press Association that the armistice has not yet been signed.

The first intimation that the signing of the armistice was being denied by the Associated Press came to this paper through Congressman Fess, who, upon calling Washington a second time at 2 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, learned that the Associated Press had denied the armistice story.

Congressman Fess talked to Gus Karger, one of the country's leading newspaper men, who stated that all of the government employees had been granted a holiday to celebrate the happy conclusion of the war.

However, Secretary Lansing had also given out the statement that the armistice report is not official.

The most of the Washington papers are declaring the armistice has been signed and the entire city is celebrating.

REPUBLICANS CONTROL HOUSE

paring reconstruction legislation of his own.

Tariff revisions probably will be among the first reconstruction measures undertaken by the new congress. Republicans demand tariff protection for new American industries, growing out of the war, but which will continue in peace times, including dye-making, and nitrate plants.

Return of the railroads, telegraphs and telephones to private ownership, as soon after the war as practicable will mean another battle.

Absolute repeal of all unusual and extraordinary war measures conferring new powers upon the executive department will be insisted on. Included in this will be the elimination of food and fuel control.

The question of ship subsidies will come up in discussion of the future of the great new merchant marine. This question seems likely to become one of the knottiest the new congress will deal with.

Republicans are generally in favor of a budget system, to systematize and make economical expenditure of government money, and such a system probably will be proposed. President Wilson has favored such a system also.

Universal military training seems likely to be made a permanent American policy, as republicans strongly favor it.

7% NON-TAXABLE IN OHIO

The Walkill Stock Farms Co.

Full Participating Preferred Stock

"Passed by the Capital Issues Committee as not incompatible with the national interest, but without approval of legality, validity, worth, or security. Opinion No. A 433."

Subject to prior sale we present the final offering of the 7%, non-taxable in Ohio, full PARTICIPATING PREFERRED Stock of The Walkill Stock Farms Company.

The first consideration in any investment should be Safety, and land utilized for the production of cattle, hogs and sheep was not only safe for your grandfather and yourself, but will be safe for your grandchildren.

The Walkill Stock Farm contains fourteen thousand acres, in a solid body, of good land, all under hog-tight wire fence, there being eighty-three miles of outside and field fencing; over fifteen hundred acres are under cultivation, and the balance in pasture.

The farm is crossed by one of the best railway systems in the United States with two shipping stations on the farm, and these stations are only thirty miles distant from a big Armour Packing Plant.

Chicago prices, with practically no shrinkage caused by long shipping, are secured for the livestock products of this farm.

The land on Walkill Farm produces corn, velvet beans, hay and other forage crops for the cattle, hogs and sheep.

Why This Is Safe

The Preferred Stock issued on this big farm is only $400,000, a little less than $30.00 an acre, and this covers farm and improvements; and no bonds or mortgages can be placed ahead of the preferred stock without the consent of the preferred stockholders. All incorporation proceedings have been under the direction of the well known legal firm of Burkhardt, Heald & Pickrell, Dayton, Ohio; and all title approvals by Richard Sassanet, Abstractor, Jacksonville, Fla.; George F. Osler, Cincinnati, Ohio, and O. O. McCollum, Attorney, Jacksonville, Fla.

It is not enough that assets behind a preferred stock issue be safe at the time of issue without regard to the future. The assets behind preferred stock should constantly increase in value and add to the safety of the preferred issue.

Preferred Stock That Is Participating

There are few men who read who are not cognizant of the fact that the eyes of the nation are upon the South as a coming livestock producing section of the United States.

The Breeders' Gazette in many issues in the last year, the United States Government in numerous bulletins and The Country Gentleman, published by the same reliable company that publishes The Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal, of October 26th and November 2nd have called attention in detail to the revolutionary change that has come in cattle and hog production in the South.

The Walkill Preferred Stock stipulates that 7% first be paid to the Preferred Stockholders and then 7% to the Common Stockholders and after that any other dividends paid must be divided equally between the Preferred and Common Stockholders.

To earn the Preferred Stock Dividend requires an earning of only $2.00 an acre; and on both the Preferred and Common requires only an earning of $3.00 an acre, and anyone versed in farm operation today knows that this is a very light requirement and that the farm that cannot earn from twelve to fifteen dollars an acre is a very poor farm or very badly managed.

There is only one way to get the largest profit that will be realized from this revolutionary livestock development, and that is through a Participating Preferred Stock that will give the holder a constant dividend and a further share in the profit.

Space will not permit further presentation of a situation that has come from a ten to twelve-month pasture season, or the ability to grow crops the year around; or the increase in farrowings because of no ice or snow, or the plentiful supply of good labor at a reasonable cost. We will be pleased to present these facts to any one interested.

Only a cattle man or a hog man would realize what it would mean and what it does mean on Walkill Farm to have five artesian wells that throw the water 22 feet in the air and make it possible to supply cattle feeding lots, farrowing houses and finishing pens with abundant, pure water without pumps or any other than natural pressure.

Walkill Farms has a number of running streams and in addition has the advantage of water from these wells.

In brief, Walkill Farm answers the requirements of the model stock farm of today. It is big enough to make it possible to afford good management: A $1,500-a-year hog man looking after a 3,000-a-year hog production is far cheaper than a cheap man looking after 100 hogs a year. It is fertile, productive land, well drained, yet well supplied with water. It has ideal shipping and railroad conditions. It has the two elements necessary for an exceptional investment—SAFETY and PROFIT.

Your Opportunity In the Final Offering of this High Class Security.

Three-fourths of this Preferred Stock has been absorbed by Ohio men—Ohio farmers and business men.

The remainder of the issue of Preferred Stock will be quickly absorbed in response to this final announcement offering.

This is a patriotic investment and has been passed by the Capital Issues Committee of the United States Government at Washington as "not incompatible with the National interest."

Beef, Pork and Butters are very closely associated. To the man who wants to get rich over night this will not be of interest, but the thinking man who wants a Safe Investment, a steady income and a further share in profits of operation and increase in land value will be interested.

Full particulars will be sent upon request.
